Order on Board

05/11/2026

1. Applicant has preferred First bail application under Section 482 of Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of anticipatory bail as he apprehends his arrest in connection with Crime No.

91/2026 registered at Police Station- Narayanpur, District Jashpur (C.G.) for offence punishable under Section351(3), 75 and 78 of BNS.

2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that on 02.08.2026, while the victim was proceeding towards the Anganwadi, the applicant allegedly obstructed her way, removed a key from her possession and subjected her to unwelcome conduct. It is further alleged that the applicant took her photographs without her consent and threatened to circulate the same, thereby attempting to blackmail and harass her. The applicant is also alleged to have pressurised the victim to communicate with him and threatened to kill her and her minor daughter in the event of her refusal to do so.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant would submit that the applicant has not committed any offence as alleged and applicant was falsely implicated in the crime in question. He submits that in the complaint there is no allegation for attracting the provisions of offence as alleged. Hence, the benefit of anticipatory bail may be extended to him.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the submission of learned counsel for applicant and would submit that there is specific allegation against the applicant that the applicant staking the victim and on second time the applicant stopped the 2 wheeler of the victim took the vehicle key from the victims hand and tried to drag the victim to near by field, caughting hold her hand. He also pointed out that prior to that according to the statement of the neighbour, the applicant came in front of house of the victim with a knife in intoxicated condition and has stated him that the applicant loves her but the victim is not responding to him and he will assault her.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the respective parties and also perused the documents enclosed along with bail application.

6. Considering the entirety of the facts and circumstances of the case, submission of learned counsel for the respective parties, nature of allegation levelled against the applicant, I do not find present to be a fit case to allow this anticipatory bail application.

7. Accordingly, this application filed under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023 stands dismissed.
