This appeal coming on for orders this day, the court passed the following:

ORDER

The petitioners/State has filed present petition under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India challenging the award passed by Presiding Officer, Labour Court by which direction was given for reinstatement of petitioner and payment of back wages.

2. Payment of back wages was stayed by this Court on 13.12.2006. Thereafter, petitioner was not reinstated in service. Order passed by the Labour Court was not complied with and same was only for payment of back wages.

Petitioners have also not complied with the Provisions of Section 17-B of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947.

3. Matter is pending before this Court since 2004 and repeated adjournments are being asked in this case. Today, also learned Government Advocate appearing for the State prays for short time to argue the case as brief has recently been traced and handed over to him.

4. Considering the fact that there is non-compliance of Section 17-B and repeated adjournments are being sought for in the case, petition is dismissed.
