ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of Rule on behalf of respondent State.

3. It is the submission of learned counsel for the applicant that he is suffering confinement since 13.03.2026. He further submitted that the applicant has not played any vital role in the alleged offence. Hence, further detention of the applicant is unwarranted.

4. Learned APP has opposed the bail application contending that, considering the conduct of the applicant and nature of accusation, the discretion may not be exercised in favour of the applicant.

Having heard the learned counsel for the respective parties and upon perusal of the material placed on record, it appears that the complainant, in his affidavit, has conceded that during the course of investigation he had received Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lakhs Only) from the applicant herein. Under such circumstances, having regard to the role attributed to the present applicant and evidence in support of charge, without commenting on merits of the matter, I deemed it fit to release the applicant on bail. Hence, present application is allowed.
