ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of Rule on behalf of respondent State.

2. The applicant, by way of this successive bail application filed under Section 483 of the BNSS, seeks regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. 3. It is the submission of learned counsel for the applicant that he is suffering confinement since 16.03.2026. He further submitted that the applicant has not played any vital role in the alleged offence. Hence, further detention of the applicant is unwarranted.

4. Learned APP has opposed the bail application contending that, considering the conduct of the applicant and nature of accusation, the discretion may not be exercised in favour of the applicant.

5. Having heard the learned counsel for the respective parties and upon perusal of the material placed on record, it appears that, during investigation Rs.10 lakhs being paid by the applicant to the complainant. The prosecution case is based on documentary evidence and investigation on the aspect of forgery etc already been over. The co-accused Daksh Goswami has been granted bail by the coordinate bench of this Court. The prosecution failed to demonstrate further custody of the applicant is necessary. In such circumstances, when chargesheet is filed and trial would take considerable time, keeping behind the applicant behind bar, would not serve any purpose. Hence, the bail application is allowed.

6. Hence, the applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R.
