CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HASMUKH D. SUTHAR

Date : 03/11/2026

ORDER

[1.0] RULE. Learned APP waives service of rule for the respondent-State.

[2.0] The present application is filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short "BNSS") for regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R. No.11213091260836 of 2026 registered with Shapar Veraval Police Station, Rajkot Rural for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4), 317(4) and 61(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (for short "BNS") and sections 66(c) and 66(d) of the Information Technology Act.

[3.0] Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the offence and now nothing is required to be recovered or discovered. He further submits upon instructions that the applicant has filed an undertaking to the effect that the applicant shall deposit Rs.3,40,000/- to show his bonafide and therefore submits that, considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

[4.0] Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed the present application and requested to dismiss the present application for regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.

[5.0] While granting bail, the Court has to consider the involvement of the accused in the alleged offence, the jurisdiction to grant bail has to be exercised on the basis of the well settled principles having regard to the facts and circumstances of each case and the following factors are to be taken into consideration while considering an application for bail: (i) the nature of accusation and the severity of the punishment and the nature of the materials relied upon by the prosecution; (ii) reasonable apprehension of tampering with the witnesses and threat to the complainant or the witnesses; (iii) reasonable possibility of securing the presence of the accused at the time of trial or the likelihood of his abscondence; (iv) character behaviour and standing of the accused and the circumstances which are peculiar to the accused; (v) larger interest of the public or the State and similar other considerations are required to be considered.

[6.0] I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the investigation papers. Following aspects have been considered:

(1) The allegation against the applicant is that alongwith the co-accused by hatching criminal conspiracy, the applicant indulged in cyber fraud activity and received benefit of Rs.3,39,260/- in his account and also received commission of Rs.10,000/- for allowing to use his bank account as mule account however, now the investigation is over and charge-sheet is filed;

(2) Applicant has filed an undertaking dated 20.10.2026, which is taken on record, para 3 of which reads as under:

> “I further state that I am ready and willing to deposit the entire disputed amount of Rs.3,40,000/- to show my bonafide, and without prejudice to my rights and contentions and subject to the final outcome of the criminal trial. I further state I will deposit the amount within 4 weeks from the date of my release from judicial custody, and wherever this Hon’ble Directs to deposit. Hence, considering the same, I may be released on from judicial custody."

(3) None of the offence alleged is punishable with life sentence or death penalty and is triable by the Court of Magistrate;

(4) Applicant is behind the bars since 16.07.2026;

(5) There is nothing to be recovered or discovered from the applicant;

(6) Though the applicant is having one past antecedent, he is presumed to be innocent till proven guilty;

(7) Obviously commencement and conclusion of trial will take some time.

[7.0] This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra vs. Central Bureau of Investigation reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in the case of Gudikanti Narasimhulu And Ors vs. Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh reported in (1978)1 SCC 240. Obviously, the conclusion of trial will take time and keeping the accused behind the bars is nothing but amounts to pre-trial conviction and therefore, considering the celebrated principle of bail jurisprudence is that "bail is a rule and jail is exception" as well as the concept of personal liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, present application deserves consideration.

[8.0] In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R. No.11213091260836 of 2026 registered with Shapar Veraval Police

Station, Rajkot Rural on executing a personal bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-five Thousand only) with ONE SURETY of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;

(a) not take undue advantage of liberty or misuse liberty;

(b) not act in a manner injurious to the interest of the prosecution & shall not obstruct or hamper the police investigation and shall not to play mischief with the evidence collected or yet to be collected by the police;

(c) surrender passport, if any, to the Trial Court within a week;

(d) not leave the territory of State of Gujarat without prior permission of the Trial Court concerned;

(e) mark presence before the concerned Police Station once in a month for a period of six months between 11.00 a.m. and 2.00 p.m.;

(f) furnish the copy of Aadhaar card, email ID/contact number / permanent and present address of his residence to the Investigating Officer and also to the Court at the time of execution of the bond and shall not change the residence and contact number/SIM card without prior permission of Trial Court;

(g) not to indulge in any illegal activity failing which learned trial Court shall issue warrant and cancel the bail of the applicant;

(h) comply with the undertaking dated 20.10.2026 tendered before this Court and shall deposit the entire disputed amount of Rs.3,40,000/- within a period of FOUR WEEKS from the date of his release with the learned trial Court failing which the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to issue warrant against the applicant and cancel the bail granted to the applicant. The aforesaid deposit of amount shall be without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the applicant and subject to the final outcome of the criminal trial;

(i) file a separate undertaking on the same line before the learned trial Court.

[9.0] The authorities will release the applicant only if he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter.

[10.0] Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.

[11.0] At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.

[12.0] Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. Direct service is permitted.
