CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HASMUKH D. SUTHAR

Date : 29/10/2026

ORDER

[1.0] RULE. Learned APP waives service of rule for the respondent-State.

[2.0] The present application is filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short "BNSS") for regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R.No.11824001261212 of 2026 registered with Vyara Police Station, District Tapi, for the offences under Sections 316(5), 336(2), 336(3), 338, 340(2), 61(2)(a) of BNS, 2023 and Section 7(1)(a) of the Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 2018 as well as Section 13(1)(a) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.

[3.0] Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the offence. Investigation is over and charge-sheet has been filed. Nothing is required to be recovered or discovered.

He therefore submits that, considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

[4.0] Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed the present application and requested to dismiss the present application for regular bail on the ground that the applicant is very much involved in the present offence and considering the gravity of offence, no case is made out to entertain present bail application. If the applicant is released on bail, possibility cannot be ruled out that the applicant will flee from justice. Therefore, present application does not deserve consideration.

[5.0] While granting bail, the Court has to consider the involvement of the accused in the alleged offence, the jurisdiction to grant bail has to be exercised on the basis of the well settled principles having regard to the facts and circumstances of each case and the following factors are to be taken into consideration while considering an application for bail: (i) the nature of accusation and the severity of the punishment and the nature of the materials relied upon by the prosecution; (ii) reasonable apprehension of tampering with the witnesses and threat to the complainant or the witnesses; (iii) reasonable possibility of securing the presence of the accused at the time of trial or the likelihood of his abscondence; (iv) character behaviour and standing of the accused and the circumstances which are peculiar to the accused; (v) larger interest of the public or the State and similar other considerations are required to be considered.

[6.0] I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the investigation papers. Allegation against the present applicant is that present applicant was working as a Bank Manager in Canara Bank and in collision and connivance of other bank employees, taking undue advantage of illiterate customer forged his signature and using the same as a genuine one, two bank accounts opened i.e. one KCC saving account and second KCC (Kishan Credit Card) Loan account and in the said accounts, sanctioning the animal loan, in total Rs.20,00,000/- siphoned in the name of the complainant and subsequently the said amount came to be transferred in the accounts of his brother and his wife.

[6.1] To show bonafide, the applicant has filed undertaking stating as under:

> "1. I state and undertake that without prejudice to my rights and contentions in law/without admission of any offence/s, I undertake to deposit amount of Rs.20,00,000 (Rupees Twenty Lakhs Only) within period of four months from pronouncement of order in present application by the Honorable High Court of Gujarat."

[6.2] Following aspects have been considered:

(1) Investigation is over and charge-sheet is filed;

(2) Applicant is behind the bars since 19/06/2026;

(3) There is nothing to be recovered or discovered from the applicant;

(4) The offenc is triable by JMFC;

(5) Case is based on documentary evidence;

(6) Though the applicant is having past antecedent, he is presumed to be innocent till proven guilty;

(7) Obviously commencement and conclusion of trial will take its own time;

(8) Prosecution has failed to point out the circumstances to continue or prolong his detention.

[7.0] This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra vs. Central Bureau of Investigation reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in the case of Gudikanti Narasimhulu And Ors. vs. Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh reported in (1978)1 SCC 240. Obviously, the conclusion of trial will take time and keeping the accused behind the bars is nothing but amounts to pre-trial conviction and therefore, considering the celebrated principle of bail jurisprudence is that “bail is a rule and jail is exception” as well as the concept of personal liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, present application deserves consideration.

[8.0] In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R.No.11824001261212 of 2026 registered with Vyara Police Station, District Tapi, on executing a personal bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-five Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;

(a) not take undue advantage of liberty or misuse liberty;

(b) not act in a manner injurious to the interest of the prosecution & shall not obstruct or hamper the police investigation and shall not to play mischief with the evidence collected or yet to be collected by the police;

(c) surrender passport, if any, to the Trial Court within a week;

(d) mark presence before the concerned Police Station once in every month for a period of six months between 11.00 a.m. and 2.00 p.m.;

(e) not to leave State of Gujarat without prior permission of the Trial Court concerned;

(f) furnish the Aadhaar card, email ID/present address of his residence to the Investigating Officer and also to the Court at the time of execution of the bond and shall not change the residence/contact number without prior permission of Trial Court;

(g) not to indulge in any illegal activity failing which learned trial Court shall issue warrant and cancel the bail of the applicant;

(h) comply with the undertaking and deposit the amount in four equal installments as per the undertaking failing which learned trial Court shall issue warrant and cancel the bail of the applicant;

[9.0] The authorities will release the applicant only if he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter.

[10.0] Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.

[11.0] At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.

[12.0] Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. Direct service is permitted.
