CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HASMUKH D. SUTHAR

Date : 29/10/2026

ORDER

[1.0] RULE. Learned APP waives service of rule for the respondent-State.

[2.0] The present application is filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short "BNSS") for regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R. No. 11204065260227 of 2026 registered with Vaso Police Station, Kheda, for the offence punishable under Sections 221, 287, 288, 351(3) and 54 of BNS read with Section 9 of the Explosive Act, 1884 and Section 5(a) of the Explosive Substances Act.

[3.0] Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the offence and now nothing is required to be recovered or discovered. He therefore submits that, considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

[4.0] Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed the present application and submitted that charge-sheet yet to be filed and she is involved in the offence. Hence, he requested to dismiss the present application for regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.

[5.0] While granting bail, the Court has to consider the involvement of the accused in the alleged offence, the jurisdiction to grant bail has to be exercised on the basis of the well settled principles having regard to the facts and circumstances of each case and the following factors are to be taken into consideration while considering an application for bail: (i) the nature of accusation and the severity of the punishment and the nature of the materials relied upon by the prosecution; (ii) reasonable apprehension of tampering with the witnesses and threat to the complainant or the witnesses; (iii) reasonable possibility of securing the presence of the accused at the time of trial or the likelihood of his/her abscondence; (iv) character behaviour and standing of the accused and the circumstances which are peculiar to the accused; (v) larger interest of the public or the State and similar other considerations are required to be considered.

[6.0] I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the investigation papers. Following aspects have been considered:

(1) substantial part of investigation is over;

(2) None of the offence alleged is punishable with life sentence or death penalty ;

(3) Applicant is a lady and she is behind the bars since 02.09.2026;

(4) There is nothing to be recovered or discovered from the applicant;

(5) Obviously commencement and conclusion of trial will take some time;

(6) The sum and substance of the allegations against the present applicant is that accused Nos. 1 and 2 (the present applicant) were holding licences issued by the District Magistrate, Kheda, for fireworks under the Explosives Rules, 2008. The present applicant is also one of the licence holders. It is alleged that although the licence of J.K. Traders was suspended by the authority, they continued to carry on the illegal business of fireworks. Explosive materials exceeding the permissible quantity of 100 kg under the licence were found at the premises of the present applicant. Despite the suspension of the licence, they allegedly continued the said activities. Accordingly, the offence came to be registered;

(7) It appears that the licence was suspended on 06.09.2024 and an inquiry was conducted by the competent authority, i.e., the Additional District Magistrate, Kheda, at Nadiad. It further appears that the licence was initially issued in the year 2018 and was renewed from time to time. The licence was last renewed for the period from 21.04.2024 to 31.03.2027;

(8) The fact that the charge-sheet is yet to be filed is not a ground to prolong the incarceration of the present applicant. It appears that the raw materials and firecrackers have already been recovered, and no actual damage or untoward incident has been reported to date. Merely on the basis of apprehension, this Court is not inclined to reject the bail application;

(9) Considering the quantum of punishment, the present application deserves consideration;

[7.0] This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra vs. Central Bureau of Investigation reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in the case of Gudikanti Narasimhulu And Ors vs. Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh reported in (1978)1 SCC 240. Obviously, the conclusion of trial will take time and keeping the accused behind the bars is nothing but amounts to pre-trial conviction and therefore, considering the celebrated principle of bail jurisprudence is that “bail is a rule and jail is exception” as well as the concept of personal liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, present application deserves consideration.

[8.0] In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R. No.11204065260227 of 2026 registered with Vaso Police Station, Kheda, on executing a personal bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-five Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that she/he shall;

(a) not take undue advantage of liberty or misuse liberty;

(b) not act in a manner injurious to the interest of the prosecution & shall not obstruct or hamper the police investigation and shall not to play mischief with the evidence collected or yet to be collected by the police;

(c) surrender passport, if any, to the Trial Court within a week;

(d) not leave the State of Gujarat without prior permission of the Trial Court concerned;

(e) mark presence before the concerned Police Station once in a week till filing of the chargesheet and after filing of the chargesheet, mark presence before the concerned police station once in a month for a period of six months;

(f) furnish the UIDAI Number, Contact Number/s, Passport Number (if she is having the passport), E-mail address and present address of his/her residence to the Investigating Officer and also to the Court at the time of execution of the bond and shall not change the residence without prior permission of Trial Court;

(h) not to indulge in any illegal activity or any similar type of offence failing which concerned Investigating Officer shall have liberty to file an application for cancellation of bail against the present applicant.

[9.0] The authorities will release the applicant only if she/he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter.

[10.0] Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.

[11.0] At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.

[12.0] Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. Direct service is permitted.
