3. Heard learned Advocate for the applicants and learned APP for the Respondent – State.

4. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice for and on behalf of the respondent – State.

5. Learned Advocate for the applicants has submitted that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and they are now not willing to proceed with the complaint any further.

6. Learned APP has opposed the present application and submitted to dismiss the present application.

7. The complainant viz. Sabiha Mansuri is present before the Court who has been identified by the learned Advocate Mr. Brij V. Sheth appearing on her behalf. She has also filed an affidavit dated 06.10.2026 on record indicating that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and there is no objection if present application is allowed. The said affidavit is ordered to be taken on record. It is also stated in the affidavit as under: -

> "2. I say and submit that after registration of the aforesaid FIR, I and my husband, applicant no. 1 herein, have amicably settled our matrimonial dispute. Within 12 days of the registration of the FIR, I returned to my matrimonial home and resumed cohabitation with my husband. I and my husband are presently residing together and are peacefully continuing our matrimonial life.
> 3. I further state that the aforesaid FIR came to be lodged by me in haste and in the backdrop of the matrimonial dispute, In view of the subsequent reconciliation and restoration of matrimonial life, I do not desire to continue the criminal proceedings arising from the aforesaid FIR and I have no objection if the FIR and all consequential proceedings are quashed and set aside qua the present applicants."

8. Considering averments made in the Affidavit as also the submissions made by the learned Advocates for the respective parties, the present application deserves to be allowed and is hereby allowed. The FIR being CR No.11191028260351 of 2026 dated 31.07.2026 registered with Vejalpur Police Station, Ahmedabad City as well as the other consequential proceedings, is hereby quashed and set aside qua the present applicants. Rule is made absolute.
