CORAM : MANJUSHA DESHPANDE, J.

DATE : 23.10.2026

PER COURT :

1. These Civil Applications have been filed by the Applicants in the respective First Appeals, seeking condonation of a delay of 1528 days in filing the First Appeals.

2. After issuing notice, the Respondents have been served. The learned Addl. G.P. and the learned AGPs appear for Respondent Nos.1 and 2 in their respective matters.

3. For the reasons stated in the Applications, which satisfactorily explains the delay, the Civil Applications are allowed in terms of Prayer Clause [B], subject to condition that the claimants shall give an undertaking to the satisfaction of Registrar (Judicial) of this Court that they will not claim any interest and statutory benefits for the delayed period.

4. Accordingly, the Civil Applications stand disposed off.

FIRST APPEALS

5. In view of the condonation of delay, the First Appeals be registered.

6. Admit.

7. Issue notice to the Respondents, returnable on 15th January, 2027. The learned Addl. G.P. and the learned AGPs waive service of notice on behalf of Respondent Nos.1 and 2 in their respective matters.

8. Call for Record and Proceedings from the concerned Court.
