DATE : 06.03.2026

PER COURT :

Learned counsel for the applicants makes a statement that office objections are removed. These applications are for restoration of first appeals. For the reasons stated in the applications, first appeals shall stand restored to their original position. If the objections are not removed then steps be taken to remove objection within period of four weeks.

2. The objection pertaining to correction of certified copy of the Reference Court can be dealt with by referring the matter to the jurisdictional Reference Court for necessary correction. In that case concerned papers shall be remitted to the Reference Court and the Reference Court shall after undertaking the correction remit back the papers to the High Court. The exercise shall be completed within a period of six weeks.
