

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE OF BOMBAY
BENCH AT AURANGABAD

908 MISC. CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 249 OF 2024
WITH
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 3193 OF 2026

RASHMI LAXMIKANT KULKARNI VERSUS
ABHAY RAVINDRA KULKARNI

....

Mr. Prasad S. Dikle, Advocate for the Applicant
Mr. Suraj V. Gundre, Advocate for the Respondent

....

CORAM : Y. G. KHOBRAGADE, J.

DATE : March 17, 2026

PER COURT :-

1. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the applicant / wife and the non-applicant / husband, at length.
2. The applicant / wife has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Section 24 of Code of Civil Procedure and prayed for transfer of Petition-A/66/2024 from the file of learned Family Court, Latur, to the file of learned Family Court, Aurangabad. However, during pending of the present application, the applicant / wife and the non-applicant / husband, amicably entered into a settlement and they filed Petition F-103 of 2025 before the Family Court, Aurangabad, seeking decree of divorce by mutual consent. Accordingly, on 18.09.2025, the learned Family Court, Aurangabad, passed an order in Petition No.F-103 of 2025 and passed the decree of divorce by mutual consent.

3. In view of above, the prayer clause (B) in the present applicant does not survive and become infructuous. Therefore, Miscellaneous Civil Application is disposed off.

4. By the Civil Application No.3193 of 2026, the applicant / wife seeks permission to withdrawn an amount of Rs.7,00,000/- (Rupees Seven Lakh), deposited by the non-applicant before this Court.

5. The learned counsel for the non-applicant/husband raised no objection.

6. In view of above, the applicant / wife is permitted to withdraw the said amount.

7. Accordingly, the civil application is disposed off. No order as to cost.

[Y. G. KHOBRAGADE, J.]

SMS