(VACATION COURT)

DATE : 21st MAY, 2026

PC.:-

1. Heard.
2. Issue notice to respondent – State. Learned APP waives service of notice on behalf of the respondent – State.
3. The learned Advocate for the Applicant submits that, the Applicant was on bail during the trial as well as during the Appeal period. The Applicant has not misused the liberty granted by the Trial Court as well as the Appellate Court. The learned Trial Court convicted the Applicant by the Judgment and Order dated 24.03.2022 passed in R.C.C. No.56/2013 for the offences punishable under Sections 324, 341, 504, 143, 148 and 149 of the Indian Penal Code (in short, 'I.P.C.') with fine. The conviction recorded by the learned Trial Court was upheld by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Beed (Appellate Court) in Criminal Appeal No.30/2022 by the Judgment and order dated 07.05.2026.

4. Considering the fact that, the Applicant was on bail during the Trial as well as during the pendency of Appeal, however, due to his absence, he was arrested on NBW and sent to the jail. Since then, he has been behind the bars. The Applicant has undergone considerable part of his sentence. The present revision application is recent one and it would take considerable time to be decided finally. The Applicant has made out prima-facie case for suspension of his sentence during the pendency of this revision petition. Therefore, I am inclined to suspend the sentence awarded by the learned Trial Court and further upheld by the Appellate Court. Hence, the following order is passed.
