1. In this revision, exception has been taken to the judgment and order dated 09-04-2025 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Dhule, in Criminal Appeal No.51 of 2011 arising out of judgment and order dated 13-06-2011 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate First Class-1, Shirpur, District Dhule, in S.C.C. No.936 of 2008, recording guilt of revisionist for offence punishable under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

2. Learned counsel for applicant pointed out that, above Criminal Revision Application is preferred challenging judgment and order in criminal appeal passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Dhule.

That, said appeal before learned Additional Sessions Judge was in consequence to conviction recorded by learned Judicial Magistrate First Class-1, Shirpur, District Dhule, under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

It is next submitted that, subsequently, matter is compromised and as such respondent nos.2A to 2E has no grievance surviving and purshis/terms of compromise (consent terms) to that extent has been placed on record. Learned counsel invited attention of the Court to the consent terms and ultimately submits that in view of such supervening events, as nothing survives, he prays to dispose of the revision by holding it as settled.

3. Learned counsel for respondent nos.2A to 2E fairly conceded that settlement has been reached at and respondent nos.2A to 2E has no further grievance as all disputes have come to an end.

4. Considering the above submissions and statement made across the bar by learned counsel about compromise being forged between the parties and parties are present before this court with terms of consent, revision application is required to be disposed of as settled.
