3. It is alleged that due to previous enmity, applicant and co-accused gave dash to the victim on 30.03.2025 at night hours and fled away. Son of the deceased victim and Vansing, who witnessed the incident chased the vehicle. The applicant was seen driving the vehicle.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that there is no direct evidence against him. F.I.R. is lodged belatedly against him due to previous enmity.

There is no material to infer that due to previous enmity the victim is tried to be run over by the accused persons. The victim received injuries on his legs, multiple fractures. The circumstances are not strong enough to deny bail to the applicant. The investigation is over. There is no purpose to detain the applicant behind bars.
