for the Respondent Mr. Raunaq Rao, Advocate.

CORAM : AMIT S. JAMSANDEKAR, J.

Reserved on : 5th November 2026.

Pronounced on : 25th November 2026.

ORDER

1. By this application under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, the Applicants seek the appointment of a sole arbitrator to adjudicate the dispute and differences that have arisen between the Applicants and the Respondent under and in connection with the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) dated 8th June 2021.

2. By the said MoU executed between the Applicants and the Respondent, the parties inter alia intended to purchase the plots bearing survey numbers 95/1(part) and 94/1(part) at Arpora, Bardez – Goa. Admittedly, disputes and differences exist between the parties in respect of the transaction under the MoU. A police complaint was filed on 19th March 2025 alleging misrepresentation, fraud and breach of trust against the Applicants. The complaint is not filed by the Respondent. Consequently, on 27th May 2025, the Economic Offences Cell of the Police Station of Panaji registered FIR No. 03/2025 against the Applicants. Thereafter, on 19th June 2025, the Applicants issued a legal notice to the complainants those who have filed a police complaint against the Applicants.

3. The arbitration clause 16 contained in the said MoU reads as under:-

> "16. In case of any dispute arises about the interpretation of any clauses, terms and conditions of this Memorandum of Understanding or relating to any clauses, terms and conditions of this Memorandum of Understanding the same shall be settled by the Arbitration laws in force."

4. Pursuant thereto, on 20th December 2025, the Applicants issued an invocation notice under Section 21 of the Arbitration Act and invoked arbitration proceedings and nominated the names of arbitrators. The Respondent did not respond to the invocation notice sent by the Applicants. Therefore, the present application.

5. The Respondent has opposed the appointment of the Arbitrator on the ground that the subject matter of the dispute is not arbitrable because a criminal complaint has been made against the Applicants in respect of the MoU, alleging fraud, misrepresentation, criminal breach of trust and fabrication of documents, etc. Therefore, according to the Respondent, the subject matter cannot be referred for arbitration; and reasons and justification for such a plea are stated by the Respondent in the reply filed by the Respondent in the present proceedings. It is stated that the dispute between the parties cannot be reduced to a simple contractual disagreement but is one involving serious questions of title, authority and competing rights, rendering the agreement incapable of enforcement and the dispute beyond the scope of arbitration. It is further submitted that the entire transaction, including consent to the MoU which contains an arbitration clause, was obtained, conceived and executed with fraudulent intent since the inception and therefore, breach of trust, forgery and conspiracy are established and therefore, it is a serious fraud committed by the Applicants. In view thereof, it is submitted that, the present matter is not arbitrable. In support of his submissions, Mr. Rao relied upon following judgments:- Abdul Kadir Shamsuddin Bubere v. Madhav Prabhakar Oak, [(1962) 3 SCR 702], Booz Allen v. SBI Home Finance, [(2011) 5 SCC 532], A. Ayyasamy v. A. Paramasivam, [(2016) 10 SCC 386], Rashid Raza v. Sadaf Akhtar, [(2019) 8 SCC 710], Vidya Drolia v. Durga Trading Corpn., [(2021) 2 SCC 1], Avitel Post Studioz v. HSBC PI Holdings, [(2021) 4 SCC 713] and Rajia Begum v. Barnali Mukherjee, [(2026) 7 SCC 631].

6. However, Mr. Rao expressly submitted that the execution and existence of the MoU are not in dispute. Admittedly, the MoU contains an arbitration clause.

7. I have heard the rival submissions and perused the record, and I have limited the scope of inquiry in this matter to the extent permissible under Section 11 of the Act, and I have also considered all the judgments cited by Mr. Rao in support of his submissions.

8. When the existence and execution of the MoU containing an arbitration clause are not in dispute, no further inquiry should be made while deciding the application under Section 11 of the Act. The contention raised by the Respondent that the subject matter, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is not arbitrable is also not a consideration for deciding an application under Section 11 of the Act.

9. After the amendment to the Arbitration Act, 1996, introducing Section 11(6A), all objections to the arbitration agreement must be adjudicated under Section 16 of the Act before the Arbitral Tribunal. The contention that the subject matter is not arbitrable cannot be the subject matter of an application under Section 11 of the Act. While deciding the Section 11 application, the Court ought not to conduct any fact-finding inquiry into the arbitrability of the subject matter. That inquiry lies within the Arbitral Tribunal's jurisdiction. Under Section 11, the inquiry ought to be confined strictly to the existence of the arbitral agreement. The authorities cited by the Respondent are not relevant after detailed interpretation of the provisions of Section 11 by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Interplay Between Arbitration Agreements under Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and Stamp Act, 1899 in Re*, [(2024) 6 SCC 1]* and thereafter, in SBI General Insurance Company Limited v. Krish Spinning*, [(2024) 12 SCC 1]. Further, all the judgments prior to the 2015 amendment and subsequent thereto on the issue are considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Managing Director, Bihar State Food and Civil Supply Corporation Limited and another v. Sanjay Kumar, [(2026) 4 SCC 649]* and it has held that:

> "28. The curtains have fallen. Courts exercising jurisdiction under Section 11(6) and Section 8 must follow the mandate of sub-section (6-A), as interpreted and mandated by the decisions of this Court and their scrutiny must be "confine(d) to the examination of the existence of the arbitration agreement."

10. In view thereof, I reject all the submissions made by learned Counsel for the Respondent.

11. Therefore, I pass the following order:-
