

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
FAMILY COURT APPEAL NO. 15 OF 2024

Prathamesh Deepak Ambukar .. Appellant

Versus

Aditi Prathamesh Ambukar .. Respondent

...

Mr. Namitkumar S. Pansare i/by Mr. Drupad S. Patil, for the Appellant.

Mr. Akshay Dingale, for the Respondent.

...

CORAM: BHARATI DANGRE &
MANJUSHA DESHPANDE, JJ.
DATED : 13th FEBRUARY, 2026

P.C:-

1. The parties have filed consent terms. Both parties are present before the Court and have been identified by their respective Advocates. As per the consent terms, the parties have arrived at an amicable settlement, and they have resolved their dispute and have decided to separate from each other by obtaining a decree of divorce by mutual consent.

It is stated that the Appellant-husband has handed over a cheque dated 18.02.2026 for an amount of Rs.5,00,000/- drawn on the State Bank of India towards full and final settlement of all the claims against him. In view of the said full and final settlement, the parties have agreed to file a petition for divorce by mutual consent within three weeks from the date of execution of these consent terms before the appropriate Family Court, failing which, the Appellant-husband shall be entitled to recover the said amount from the Respondent-wife and the Respondent-wife shall not object to the same. The consent terms are marked as “X” for identification and are taken on record.

Rushikesh

It is declared that the parties shall remain bound by the consent terms placed on record.

In view of the aforementioned consent terms, the Family Court Appeal stands disposed of.

(MANJUSHA DESHPANDE, J.)

(BHARATI DANGRE, J.)