Officers/Respondents, only 12 are interested to go back to their original post, and therefore, their representation may be considered by the department since there are a number of vacancies which are going to be filled up in the month of June, 2026. Without commenting on the merit of the above submission made by Mr. Mr. Nagargoje, we grant liberty to, the State to consider their request, if proper representation is filed and pass appropriate order if so advised, which would be without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties in this case.

5. List again on 9th June, 2026.
