1. At the outset, Ms. Mulekar, learned APP, states that there are two antecedents which have not been disclosed in the Anticipatory Bail Application.

2. In view of the said contention raised by Ms. Mulekar, learned APP, Mr. Bankapur, learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant, seeks permission to withdraw the present Anticipatory Bail Application with liberty to file a fresh Anticipatory Bail Application by incorporating details of all antecedents. However, he submits that by order dated

On the other hand Mr. Punjabi, learned Counsel appearing for the Intervenor submits that the statement which has been recorded in Paragraph Nos.4 of said order dated 12th April 2024 has been found to be false and on the basis of said statement the said interim protection has been obtained and therefore the same may not be continued.

4. However, as the said protection is continued for almost about 22 months and the Applicant is withdrawing the Anticipatory Bail Application with liberty to file fresh Anticipatory Bail Application, it is necessary to continue the interim protection till 4th March 2026.

5. Mr. Bankapur, learned Counsel states that in the fresh Anticipatory Bail Application, the Applicant will implead the First Informant as party Respondent No.2 and will also serve the Respondent No.2 before moving the fresh Anticipatory Bail Application before the Court.
