N.S.Kamble

2. It is prosecution's case that the Applicant had supplied charas to the co-accused.

3. It is contention of learned counsel for the Applicant that the Applicant is behind bars for more than one year and ten months. The Applicant has no antecedents. There is no recovery at the instance of the Applicant. On the basis of the CDR, police arrested the Applicant. There is no progress in the trial and requested to allow the Application.

4. It is contention of learned APP that charas was recovered from the co-accused it was supplied by the Applicant. The CDR annexed with the charge-sheet shows that the Applicant was in constant touch with the co-accused. If Applicant released on bail, he may abscond or threaten prosecution witnesses, and requested to reject the Application.

5. I have heard both learned counsel. Perused charge-sheet and documents produced on record.

6. The Applicant has no antecedents. The Applicant is behind bars for more than one year and ten months. The allegations against him are supplying charas to the co-accused. Police arrested him on the basis of the CDR. To prove the involvement of the Applicant in the
