3. It is contention of learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is behind bars for more than five years and three months. The co-accused Sanket Prakash Alhaat, against whom similar allegations are made, has been released on bail. Hence, the applicant is entitled to bail on the principle of parity and requested to allow the application.

4. It is contention of learned APP that the role attributed to co-accused - Sanket Prakash Alhaat and the applicant are on different footing. The applicant actively participated in assaulting the deceased. If the applicant is released on bail, he may abscond or threaten the prosecution witnesses. The applicant has five antecedents. Hence, requested to reject the application.

5. I have heard both learned counsel, perused the charge-sheet and documents produced on record. The applicant is behind bars for more than five years and three months. There is no progress in the trial. The role attributed to co-accused - Sanket Prakash Alhaat, who has been released on bail by this Court, is on a higher footing than that of the applicant. Considering these facts, the applicant is entitled to bail on the principle of parity and I pass the following order.

ORDER

- (i) The applicant be enlarged on bail in Crime No.1069 of 2020 registered with Kondwa Police Station, District Pune, on

Shubhada S Kadam

The application is allowed in the aforesaid terms and is accordingly disposed of.

6. It is made clear that the above observations are made only for the purpose of granting bail and the Trial Court shall decide the case on its own merits in accordance with law and uninfluenced by the observations made in this order.

7. All concerned to act on the authenticated copy of this order.
