CORAM : SHIVKUMAR DIGE, J.

DATE : 19th JANUARY, 2026.

P.C. :

1. These two applications are arising out of the same crime, hence I am deciding both these applications by this common order.

Sanhita, 2023 (for short “BNS Act”).

3. It is prosecution’s case that on 26.12.2024, at around 4:00 p.m., the applicants and co-accused assaulted the first informant and her husband with axe with an intention to kill them on account of family dispute.

4. It is contention of learned counsel for the applicants that the applicants are behind bars for more than one year. There is no progress in the trial. The applicants have no antecedents. The injuries suffered by the first informant are simple in nature. It may take time to conclude the trial and requested to allow the applications.

5. It is contention of learned APP along with learned counsel for the intervenor that the applicants brutally assaulted the first informant and her husband with axe with an intention to kill them. The first informant has suffered grievous injuries in the said assault, which shows intention of the applicants to kill first informant and her husband. The relatives of the applicants are threatening the first informant and her husband. If applicants are released on bail, they may threaten first informant and her husband. The co-accused are still absconding, hence requested to reject the application.

6. I have heard all learned counsel. Perused chargesheet and documents produced on record. The applicants are behind bars for more
