CORAM DR. NEELA GOKHALE, J.
DATED: 25TH FEBRUARY 2026

PC:-

1. By this Application, the Applicant seeks his enlargement on bail in connection with C.R. No. 201 of 2025 dated 15th April, 2026 registered with the Nerul Police Station, for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii), 29, 21(a), 23(a), 27A and 59(2) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (for short 'NDPS') and Sections 338, 336(3), 340(2), 255 and 3(5) of the Bharatiya

Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 ('BNS'). The present Applicant is charged with offences punishable under Sections 23(a), 23(b), 27A and 29 of the NDPS Act and Section 255 of the BNS.

2. The brief facts of the case are that there are in all 26 accused involved in the present offence. The Applicant is Accused No. 21. The Applicant is stated to be a superior official in the Post Office, New Delhi. The Applicant misused his post and facilitated import of a parcel alleged to contain contraband from foreign shores and clearing and delivering the said parcel to one Kamal Chandwani. He is also alleged to have accepted money for the same in his bank account. The prosecution alleges that the parcel contained Hydro Ganja which is a narcotic substance. The Applicant was arrested on 17th July, 2025.

3. The Applicant made an application seeking bail before the Additional Sessions Judge, Belapur. However, by order dated 7th October, 2025, the said application was rejected. Hence, the Applicant has filed the present Application for the relief as prayed.

4. Mr. Salvi, learned counsel for the Applicant, submits that there is no incriminating material against the present Applicant. He further submits that no contraband was recovered from the present Applicant. He further submits that there is no other material on record to connect the present Applicant with the alleged offence. He further submits that the role attributed to the Applicant is to receive money on behalf of his employer for clearing Hydro Ganja parcels coming from the foreign shores. He further submits that there are no criminal antecedents against the Applicant. Hence, he prays that the Applicant be enlarged on bail.

5. Ms. Bajoria, learned APP representing the State, brought to my notice the bank account statement of the Applicant. The Applicant has received amount of Rs.3,85,000/- from the Company-Food Coma, which is said to belong to co-accused-Chandwani. She also points to a statement of an independent witness who has told the police that the he was aware that the Applicant is indulged in facilitating clearance of parcels imported from abroad and delivery of the same, for which he also accepted money. She submits that there is ample material on record against the Applicant to connect him with the alleged offence. She, therefore, prays that the application be rejected.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the respective parties and perused the record of the case with their assistance.

7. Admittedly, there is no recovery of any contraband from the present Applicant. The only material available against him are the statements of persons who have stated that they are aware that the present Applicant has facilitated in clearance of imported parcels and delivered them to the recipient for money. The Applicant was arrested on 17th July, 2025 and the charges are not framed as on date. Considering the number of accused in the alleged offence, it is not likely that the trial will conclude in the near foreseeable future, in these circumstances, I am inclined to enlarge the Applicant on bail. It is accordingly ordered as under:-
