5:15 p.m., the applicant and co-accused murdered the brother of the first informant by assaulting him with a sharp weapon. The applicant was driver of the car wherein co-accused gang leader was sitting at the time of incident.

3. It is contention of the learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is behind bar for more than 3 years and 9 months. There is no progress in the trial. There are no allegations against the applicant of assaulting the deceased or the first informant, and hence requested to allow the application.

4. It is contention of the learned APP that the applicant has antecedents. He intended to kill the deceased. He was sitting in the car when the incident happened. If the applicant is released on bail, he may threaten the prosecution witnesses and the first informant, and, therefore, requested to reject the application.

5. I have heard both learned counsel, perused the charge-sheet and the documents produced on record. There are no allegations against the applicant of actual assault on the deceased. To show a common object, evidence is required. The co-accused who was present in car has been released on bail. The applicant is behind bar for more
