1. Mentioned out of turn.
2. This is an application for regular bail.
3. The applicant came to be arrested in Crime No. 221 of 2024 registered at Upanagar Police Station, Nashik for the offences punishable under Sections 307, 323, 504, 506 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3 read with 25 and 4 read with 27 of the Arms Act.
4. It is the case of the prosecution that on the date of incident which took place on 29th June 2024, on account of previous enmity, the present applicant and other co-accused assaulted the first informant and his friends with a sharp weapon and a revolver and attempted to commit their murder. It is alleged that the present applicant, who at the time of incident, was armed with the revolver fired at one of the injured namely Akash Pawar, due to which he sustained injury on his thigh.

5. I have heard the learned counsel for the applicant and the learned APP for the respondent – State.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that there is a cross FIR in relation to the alleged incident. It is submitted that the applicant is in jail for about one and half years and the trial is still at the stage of framing of charge. It is submitted that all other co-accused are released on bail.

7. On the other hand, learned APP for the respondent/State submits that the applicant is involved in serious crime of attempt to murder. It is submitted that the applicant is involved in six more crimes. It is submitted that considering the nature of crime, the applicant may not be released on bail.

8. The fact that there is a cross-FIR in relation to the alleged incident is not disputed. It appears that the applicant was also injured in the alleged incident. Considering these facts, I am inclined to release the applicant on bail on certain conditions. In the result, the following order is passed.

ORDER
