4. The FIR has been lodged by mother of the Victim-Milind Deshpande i.e. Vrunda Mukund Deshpande. As per the prosecution case, the Applicant was staying separate for about 12 years as there was a matrimonial dispute between the Applicant and her husband - Milind Deshpande. It is stated in FIR that said Milind suffered paralysis on 22nd April 2024 and thereafter the Applicant - Manasi Milind Deshpande started visiting him and during that period from 1st July 2024 to 8th January 2025 a total amount of Rs.1,40,00,000/- has been transferred from the account of the Victim-Milind Deshpande to the account of the Applicant - Manasi Deshpande.

Mr. Deore, learned Counsel appointed to represent the interest of the Applicant, submits that although in the FIR it is mentioned that the amount is transferred in the sole account of the Applicant, however, in fact the said account was standing in the joint names of the Applicant and her husband - Milind Deshpande. He, therefore, submits that the Applicant is not at all involved in the crime and in any case the custodial interrogation is not necessary.

6. Mr. Mishra, learned Counsel for the Applicant and Mr. Yadav, learned Counsel for the Victim i.e. Milind Deshpande, submit that in fact the said transfer of money was with the consent of husband - Milind Deshpande and the FIR has been registered due to some misunderstanding. Both of them submit that the Applicant is not involved in the crime and in fact Petition has already been filed being Writ Petition (Stamp) No.24439 of 2025 seeking quashing of the FIR.

7. Mr. Thorave, learned Counsel appearing for the Intervenor i.e. First Informant (mother-in-law of the Applicant), states that the First Informant has also no objection for granting anticipatory bail to the Applicant.

8. Mr. Mangaonkar, learned APP strongly opposes the Anticipatory Bail Application.

9. However, in the facts and circumstances, the case is made out for grant of anticipatory bail.

10. Accordingly, the Anticipatory Bail Application is disposed of by passing following Order:
