CORAM : RAVINDRA V. GHUGE &
 ABHAY J. MANTRI, JJ.
 DATE : 7th APRIL, 2026

P.C. :-

1. In all these matters, the similarly placed Petitioners fall within the category of Persons with Disabilities (PwD). All these Petitioners have been directed to subject themselves to medical examinations, as the Department has noticed a large-scale purported malpractice of categorisation of employees as PwD. In similar matters, we have directed all the Petitioners to undergo fresh medical examinations, with the rider that, after the receipt of their medical reports, no precipitative action would be initiated against any of such Petitioners.

2. In view of the above, we are passing a similar order directing that the Petitioners shall subject themselves to such medical examination as may be mandated by the concerned authorities / employers. After the medical examinations, no precipitative action would be initiated against such Petitioners solely on the basis of any variation in the medical reports. Consequently, the registration of FIRs, which is one of the steps contemplated by the Respondent Authorities, as well as the orders of suspension issued to some of the Petitioners, shall stand stayed. In other words, all such suspension orders shall remain stayed. The Department shall refrain from registering FIRs against such Petitioners merely on account of any variation in their earlier medical reports and the new medical reports.

3. The learned Additional Government Pleader, Mr. Kakade, has fairly stated that, after this Court passed such protective orders in the earlier batch of Petitions, the Department was intimated of such orders. The learned Senior Advocate, Mr. Pakale, submits that, despite the passing of such orders by this Court, those who are not Petitioners before the Court, are being subjected to orders of suspension, proposed registration of FIRs, and/or disciplinary action.

4. We, therefore, record that such interim orders granting protection to the Petitioners, shall apply to all similarly placed persons, and the Department shall take note of these orders so as to refrain from registering FIRs or issuing further suspension orders.

5. All the learned Advocates appearing in matters transferred from the Nagpur and Aurangabad Benches and the Kolhapur Circuit Bench, which have been clubbed before this Court under the orders of the Hon'ble The Chief Justice of the Bombay High Court, shall tender brief written notes of submissions, not exceeding two pages, on the next date.

6. By consent of the parties, all these matters be listed on 9th April 2026, at 3:00 p.m., along with the other part-heard matters group already scheduled on the said date.
