3. All rights and obligations mentioned in the Consent Terms qua the respective parties are taken as undertaking given to the Court and parties shall abide by the same.

4. This Court appreciates the efforts put in by Mr. Mishra and Mr. Shaikh, both the learned Advocates in resolving the issue considering the fact that the present matter was contested with great hostility previously.

5. Parties have decided that Appellant / Plaintiff shall be entitled to 2/3rd share whereas Respondent Nos. 1 and 2 i.e. Defendant Nos. 1 and 2 shall be entitled to 1/3rd share in all rights, liabilities and benefits of the tenancy / entitlement and the ongoing redevelopment in the project in respect of Room No. 52, 2nd Floor, B.I.T. Chawl No. 1, Opp. Jhula Maidan, Madhavrao Gangan Marg, Agripada, Mumbai - 400 011.

6. Both the learned Advocates - Mr. Mishra and Mr. Shaikh persuades the Court to pass further directions so that there is no ambiguity as also the fact that private Respondents are not left at the mercy of the Developer. I agree with the submissions made by both the learned Advocates. I am informed by Mr. Mishra that possession of the suit room No. 12 has already been handed over to the Corporation Officer in the last week and the same has been vacated by the Plaintiff altogether. Plaintiff has thereafter shifted to Neral. He would submit that water connection and electricity supply has been disconnected by the Corporation acting on the basis of Division Bench order and therefore the vacant possession of the suit flat has already been handed over to the Corporation.

7. Mr. Kadam and Mr. Thakkar, learned Advocates represents the Developers. They would submit that to their knowledge they are not aware whether possession of the suit flat is handed over. Be that as it may, both the learned Advocates are directed to take inspection and accordingly if there is any difficulty apprise the Court about the same. If the possession has been handed over to the Corporation, issue of redevelopment stands concluded in view of the Consent Terms.

8. In view of the above and adhering to the request made by Mr. Mishra and Mr. Shaikh, it would be appropriate if directions are passed by this Court to give the transit rent to the Plaintiff and Defendant Nos. 1 and 2 separately in view of the Consent Terms arrived at between them. Hence it is directed that Developers shall give cheque for transit rent in denomination of 2/3rd share to the Plaintiff and 1/3rd share to Defendant Nos. 1 & 2.

9. Notice dated 23.03.2026 is placed before me. This is a notice issued by Corporation. It states that transit rent of Rs. 30,000/- will be paid in respect of room No. 52. Said notice states that Developer shall pay upfront transit rent for 18 months. In view of this, cheque for 18 months for Rs. 3,60,000/- shall be paid to the Plaintiff whereas cheque for Rs. 1,80,000/- shall be paid to Defendant Nos. 1 & 2 directly in the name of either or both to be deposited in their joint account. Thereafter from 19th month onwards upto the 42nd month, when redevelopment is to be completed whatever terms and conditions that would be applicable for payment with escalation of transit rent, the same shall also be paid in the same manner as directed herein above to the parties.

10. Needless to state that PAAA shall be executed forthwith by the Developer and the draft thereof will be shared by the Developer with both the parties forthwith. At the request made by learned Advocate for Developer, if the said draft is approved by the parties, Developer shall execute and register the said PAAA within a period of two weeks from the date of agreement and both parties shall be entitled to be aforementioned shares namely 2/3rd to Plaintiff and 1/3rd jointly to Defendant Nos. 1 and 2.

11. In view of the above, entire Suit proceedings would become infructuous before Trial Court and shall be withdrawn by the Plaintiff which is agreed.

12. Order in terms of the Consent Terms.
13. All contentions of parties are kept open.
14. Present Appeal from Order and Interim Application are disposed accordingly.
15. Liberty to apply.
16. Refund of Court fees, if any, as per rules.
17. All parties to act on a server copy of this order downloaded from Bombay High Court website.
