... Respondents

Ms. Heena Faruki i/b Mr. Adil Naqvi, for the Petitioner.

Mr. Milind Sathe, Advocate General, a/w Mr. Shishir Hiray, Chief P. P.
and Ms. Supriya Kak, A.P.P., for the Respondent-State.

CORAM : SARANG V. KOTWAL &
SANDESH D. PATIL, JJ.

DATE : 28th APRIL, 2026.

P.C. :

1. Learned Advocate General submits and states that since the wife of the Petitioner has a nine month old child, on humanitarian ground she will be released immediately from the Holding Centre. However, he submits that the Authorities may take action against her in accordance with law in future. He submitted that the Petitioner's wife be directed to report to the police station twice a week and also share her mobile location with Police Officers of Naya Nagar Police Station for a period of two months.

2. Learned Counsel for the Petitioner is agreeable to that condition of reporting and sharing the location. The statement made by the learned Advocate General as well as the statement made by learned Counsel for the Petitioner is recorded and accepted. Therefore, nothing further survives in this Petition.

3. Accordingly, Writ Petition No.1465 of 2026 is disposed of.
