2. This Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, is filed by the Petitioners for quashing the FIR bearing No. 307 of 2025 registered with Naya Nagar Police Station (impugned FIR) and the case bearing RCC No. 12598 of 2025 pending before the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Mira Road, Thane arising from the impugned FIR.

3. Mr. Manas Mishra, learned Advocate for the Petitioners, and Mr. Shadab Khopekar, learned Advocate for the Respondent No.2, submit that the subject matter of the impugned FIR is a matrimonial dispute between the Petitioner No.1 (husband) and the Respondent No.2 (wife). They submit that the Petitioners and the Respondent No.2 have amicably resolved the matrimonial dispute. They submit that the Petitioner No.1 and the Respondent No.2 are residing together as husband and wife. They submit that the Respondent No.2 does not intend to continue the criminal proceedings in view of the settlement with the Petitioners. They further submit that the Respondent No.2 has filed an Affidavit dated 26 March 2026, acknowledging the amicable resolution of the dispute. They, therefore, request the quashing of the impugned FIR and the charge-sheet arising out of the impugned FIR.

4. The Petitioners are present in the Court and are identified by their Advocate Mr. Manas Mishra. He tenders the Photostat copies of the Petitioners' Identity Cards, which are taken on record and marked as "X-Colly" for identification.

“1. 2. I say that the matter is amicably resolved between me and the petitioners and I do not wish to proceed this matter against any of the Accused/presen petitioners in the said case No. RCC 12598 of 2025 pending before JMFC, Mira Road in FIR NO. 307 OF 2025 registered with Naya Nagar Police Station.

Mrs. P P Bhosale, learned APP for the Respondent/State, submits that as the matrimonial dispute between the Petitioners and the Respondent No.2 has been amicably resolved and that the Respondent No.2 has stated that she is residing with the Petitioner No.1 as husband and wife, Respondent No. 1 does not object to the quashing of the impugned FIR and the charge-sheet arising out of the impugned FIR. She, however, submits that since the Petitioners and the Respondent No.2 have involved the police in a matter which was otherwise unnecessary, costs be imposed on the Petitioners.

9. Mr Manas Mishra, learned Advocate for the Petitioners, on instructions, submits that the appropriate costs would be paid by the Petitioners.

10. Considering the facts mentioned above, the submissions of the learned Advocates for the parties, the nature of the dispute being matrimonial discord, Respondent No.2 having amicably resolved the dispute with the Petitioners, the statements made by Respondent No.2 before this Court as well as in her Affidavit (X-2) and she having disclosed her intention not to continue the criminal proceedings against the Petitioners, no useful purpose will be served by allowing the criminal prosecution to continue. Having regard to the pronouncements of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in *Gian Singh vs State of Punjab*¹, *Narinder Singh and Ors vs State of Punjab and Anr*² and *Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai vs The State of Gujarat*³, there is no impediment in allowing this Petition.
