Applicant is behind bars for more than one year and one month. The first informant's son brought the said gold ornaments on his own. Applicant never threatened him. There is no progress in the trial and requested to allow the application.

5. It is contention of learned APP that Applicant and co-accused threatened first informant's minor son to bring gold ornaments. The gold ornaments recovered at the instance of the applicant. Applicant has one antecedent. If he is released on bail, he may threaten the first informant and prosecution witnesses and requested to reject the application.

6. I have heard both learned counsel. Perused charge-sheet and documents produced on record.

7. Applicant is behind bars for more than one year and one month. At the time of incident, first informant's son was around 15 years' old. To prove the case against the Applicant, trial is required. Though Applicant has one antecedent, it is of the year of 2017. It may take time to conclude the trial.
