Maharashtra Control of Organized Crime Act (for short “MCOC Act”).

3. It is prosecution’s case that on 07.04.2022 at around 9:00 p.m., the applicant and co-accused assaulted the deceased with sickle and a sharp weapon with an intention to kill him on the ground that the first informant refused to pay money to the brother of the applicant for drinking liquor.

4. It is contention of learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is behind bar for more than 3 years and 6 months. There is no progress in the trial. It may take time to conclude the trial and requested to allow the application.

5. It is contention of learned APP that applicant was externed from Pune city. The externment order was in force when applicant committed this offence. If applicant released on bail, he may threaten the first informant and prosecution witnesses. Learned APP further submitted that the applicant assaulted the first informant on his head with an intention to kill him. It shows his involvement in the crime. The injuries suffered by the first informant are of grievous nature. The applicant has four antecedents. Hence, requested to reject the application.
