4. It is contention of the learned APP along with learned counsel for respondent No. 2 that the applicant carried the victim to drop her at her place, but he forced her to alight from the train and took her to one field and assaulted her on her neck with blade with the intention to kill her and left her abandoned in the said field. The victim was found by witnesses in an injured condition, and in her statement, she has specifically stated about the assault by the applicant. The trial is in progress, and if the applicant is released on bail, he may threaten the prosecution witnesses, and requested to reject the application.

5. I have heard both learned counsel, perused charge-sheet and documents produced on record. The applicant is behind bars for around six years. The trial is in progress. It may take time to conclude the trial. The applicant has no antecedents. Considering these facts, I pass following order: allowed.
