DATE : 29TH APRIL, 2026

The appellant as well as the respondent are present today and they filed their consent terms. The consent terms are taken on record and marked as 'X' for identification purpose. The contents of the consent terms verified from the parties for which they agreed to be correct.

2. In view of the consent terms, the amount of Rs.25,00,000/- (Rs.Twenty Five Lakh) as full and final settlement was paid by the appellant for the respondent and daughter Smrithi as permanent alimony. Both the parties have agreed that the appellant shall have visitation rights as mentioned in Clause-C. It is also agreed that the appellant has also taken a policy as mentioned in Clause-D, wherein one time premium amount of Rs.3,40,725/- (Rs.Three Lakh Fourty Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty Five) was paid by the appellant, has handed over to the respondent. The gold ornaments as mentioned in Clause-E also received by the respondent-wife. The amount of Rs.12,50,000/- (Rs. Twelve Lakh Fifty Thousand) was paid by way of cheque dated 10/04/2026, which was duly encashed. Today, remaining amount of Rs.12,50,000/- (Rs.Twelve Lakh Fifty Thousand) paid by cheque. As such, the respondent acknowledged the receipt of Rs.25,00,000/- and streedhan/gold ornaments. She has extended no objection to allow the appeals filed by the appellant and grant the decree of divorce.

3. Accordingly, both the Family Court Appeals are allowed.

4. The common judgment and order passed by the Family Court, Amravati, dated 09/10/2023 is hereby quashed and set aside.

5. It is held and declared that the marriage between the parties dated 30/12/2015 is hereby declared as dissolved.

6. The decree be drawn up accordingly.

7. Needless to mention here that the document marked as 'X' (consent terms) is to be treated as part and parcel of the decree passed by this Court.

8. Both the appeals are disposed of. No costs.
