DATE : 9TH FEBRUARY, 2026

P.C.

Today, the appellant and the respondent with their respective counsel filed joint pursis of compromise dated 09/02/2026. The same is taken on record and marked as 'X' for identification.

2. In view of the settlement, the respondent agreed to pay the amount of Rs.21,00,000/- (Rs.Twenty One Lakhs) as mentioned in term No.i-A, B and C. That amount to be deposited directly in the account of the appellant. It is also agreed between the parties that out of the said amount, Rs.10,00,000/- (Rs.Ten Lakhs) will be deposited in any Nationalized Bank in the name of their daughter namely Isha till she attained the age of majority. The appellant is entitled to withdraw the interest amount monthly or quarterly as per her wish.

3. The allegations made by both the parties against each other are agreed to be withdrawn. All pending proceedings filed by the appellant against the respondent shall be withdrawn on deposit of last installment of Rs.4,00,000/- (Rs.Four Lakhs) in the month of April, 2026. The appellant will not execute the order of deduction of Rs.3,000/- from the salary of the respondent passed in Criminal Miscellaneous Application No.239 of 2019. Both the parties have agreed that they will not file any litigation against each other or against the family members.

4. In addition to above terms, both the parties are agreed that the decree passed by the Family Court, Yavatmal in Petition No.A-47 of 2022 dated 28/05/2024 be confirmed. The appellant has given up her right to execute the judgment and decree dated 20/05/2024 to the extent of maintenance and shall not execute the same in future also, subject to deposit of total amount agreed between the parties.

5. These are the broad terms and conditions agreed between the parties. The contents in the joint pursis are verified from the parties and appeared to be genuine and in the interest of the parties. As such, the Family Court Appeal No.52 of 2024 is dismissed to the extent of dissolution of marriage between the parties dated 30/04/2016, subject to compliance of the compromise pursis marked as 'X'.

6. The appeal in relation to the order in respect of Petition No.E-262 of 2020 is hereby disposed of subject to payment as mentioned in term No.i-A, B, C of the compromise pursis 'X'. Decree be drawn up accordingly. The joint pursis of compromise marked as 'X' shall be the part and parcel of the decree.
