DATE : 29.04.2026.

2. The First Information Report in question was lodged at the instance of one Ankush Vishnu Ingle. In short, it was alleged in the FIR that quarrel had taken place with the informant party on the reason of right to way and on that count a free-fight took place. It was alleged that the present applicants, forming unlawful assembly, had assaulted the informant party.

3. The learned counsel for the applicants submitted that even the accused persons named in the FIR, more particularly Suryabhan Ingle, had lodged the FIR against the informant party. He therefore prayed for ad interim anticipatory bail.

4. Per contra, the learned APP has opposed the application on the ground that specific role assigned to the applicants and sought time to file reply.

5. The learned counsel for the applicants has submitted that after rejecting their application for anticipatory bail, the Sessions Court on subsequent date has extended ad interim anticipatory bail granted to the applicants for 15 days, which period will come to end on 01.05.2026.

6. Considering the fact that there are counter-cases and few of the accused are already granted anticipatory bail qua the informant party, till filing the reply the liberty of the applicants can be protected. Hence, the following order is passed:

ORDER
