The Court made the following:

O R D E R

The present Civil Revision Petition came to be filed, seeking direction to the learned Principal Junior Civil Judge cum Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Chittoor (For brevity, 'the Trial Court') to dispose the Original Suit No.685 of 2023 preferred by the petitioner/plaintiff, expeditiously.

2. The petitioner filed O.S.No.685 of 2023 on the file of the learned Principal Junior Civil Judge cum Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Chittoor, against the respondents/defendants, seeking the reliefs of division of the plaint schedule property into four (4) shares; allotment of two (2) such shares to the petitioner herein by metes and bounds and for delivery of possession of the same to the petitioner and for costs of the suit.

3. Counsel for the petitioner submits the petitioner/ plaintiff is aged about 78 years and that her health is fragile and that she has been forcibly dispossessed from her residential house and is presently sheltering with relatives, and hence prayed to direct the learned Trial Court to dispose of the O.S.No.685 of 2023 expeditiously without granting unnecessary adjournments. Learned counsel for the respondents did not object the same.

4. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the age of the petitioner/plaintiff, being senior citizen, without going into merits of the case, the learned Principal Junior Civil Judge cum Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Chittoor is directed to dispose the Original Suit No.685 of 2023 in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of one (01) year from the date of receipt of copy of this Order.

5. Accordingly, the Civil Revision Petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs of the CRP.

As a sequel, interlocutory applications pending, if any, in the Revision Petition shall stand closed.
