...RESPONDENT(S):

Petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India,praying that in the circumstances stated in the grounds filed herein,the High Court may be pleased toSet aside the docket order dated 03.09.2026 recording the further cross-examination of D.W.1 as nil, and the docket order dated 28.09.2026 posting the suit for arguments, both passed in O.S.No.14 of 2018 on the file of the VII Additional District Judge, Gudur b. Consequentially allow the I.A. filed by the petitioner/plaint iff on 25.09.2026 under Section 151 CPC, re-open the evidence of D.W.1 to enable the petitioner/plaintiff to cross-examine him, and direct the trial court to fix a date

IA NO: 1 OF 2026

Petition under Section 151 CPC praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the petition, the High Court may be pleased dispense with the filing of the certified copies of the docket proceedings dated 20.07.2026, 06.08.2026, 14.08.2026, 03.09.2026, 23.09.2026, 25.09.2026 and 28.09.2026 in O.S.No.14 of 2018 on the file of the VII Additional District Judge, Gudur in the interest of justice,

IA NO: 2 OF 2026

Petition under Section 151 CPC praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the petition, the High Court may be pleased stay all further proceedings in the said suit, pending disposal of the present Civil Revision Petition, in the interest of justice

Counsel for the Petitioner:

1. KOMARA PRUDHVI RAJ

Counsel for the Respondent(S):

1. GAJJALA MALLIKARJUNA REDDY

The Court made the following:

ORDER

Heard Sri Komara Prudhvi Raj, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Y.Nagi Reddy, learned counsel representing Sri Gajjala Malikarjuna Reddy, learned counsel for the respondents 1 to 3.

2. The above revision is filed complaining of inaction of the trial Court in numbering and deciding an unnumbered petition filed under Order XVIII Rule 17 r/w 151 CPC vide CF No.4161 of 2026 dated 25.09.2026 and another unnumbered petition filed under Section 151 CPC vide CF No.4160 of 2026 dated 25.09.2026.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner/plaintiff filed I.As. on 25.09.2026 referred to supra, in suit O.S.No.14 of 2018 on the file of VII Additional District Judge, Gudur. The said I.As were returned with certain objections. Thereafter, the said I.As were re-submitted on 03.10.2026 after complying with objections. However, the trial Court neither numbered nor passed a judicial order rejecting the same.

4. Sri Y.Nagi Reddy, learned counsel representing Sri Gajjala Malikarjuna Reddy, learned counsel for the respondents 1 to 3, would submit that initially, by the date of filing of the revision, the petitioner did not comply with the objections and later, the objections were complied with.

5. Thus, as seen from the material available on record, the petitioner complied with the objections vis-à-vis the interlocutory applications. Since the objections were complied with and the I.As were re-submitted, without touching the merits of the matter, the Civil Revision Petition is disposed of, directing the learned VII Additional District Judge, Gudur to number the I.As, if they are otherwise in order, and to pass appropriate orders according to law, as expeditiously as possible. No order as to costs.

As a sequel, all the pending miscellaneous applications shall stand closed.
