(BY SRI. CHANDAN S. RAO, ADVOCATE FOR R1(A AND B))

THIS REGULAR FIRST APPEAL IS FILED UNDER SECTION 96 OF THE CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

THIS REGULAR FIRST APPEAL IS LISTED FOR HEARING, THIS DAY, THE JUDGMENT IS DELIVERED AS UNDER:

ORAL JUDGMENT

Sri.T.M.Venkata Reddy, counsel for the appellant and Sri.Chandan S.Rao, counsel for respondent No.1 (A & B) appeared in person.

Sri.L.Muniswamy - appellant and respondent No.1(A) - Smt.Uma Indra Kumar, respondent No.1(B) - Smt.Meghana Indra Kumar are physically present before this Court and they have been duly identified by their respective counsel.

Counsel appearing for the respective parties jointly submit that the parties to the lis have settled the matter before the Mediation Centre and accordingly, a memorandum of settlement is drawn and the same may be taken on record and the settlement may be accepted and the appeal may be disposed of in terms of the settlement.

When queried, the parties have stated that they have indeed settled the dispute and they have arrived at compromise/ settlement and the appeal may be disposed of in terms of the compromise/ settlement arrived by them. They further state that they have arrived at settlement on their own will and volition without there being any coercion and undue influence from any side.

The oral submission made by counsel for the respective parties and the compromise petition is placed on record. I have perused the same with utmost care.

Taking note of the submission made by the respective parties, the memorandum of settlement entered between the parties before the KMC is placed on record and it is accepted and the appeal is disposed of in terms of the settlement.

The Registry concerned is hereby directed to draw the decree in terms of the compromise petition.

As the matter is settled, the Registry concerned is hereby directed to refund the requisite Court fee to the appellant as per the Karnataka Court Fees and Suit Valuation Act.

Because of disposal of the appeal, interim order if any stands discharged and pending interlocutory applications if any are disposed of.
