b. Grant such other relief as this Hon'ble Court deems fit in the interest of justice and equity."

3. Counsel for the respective parties urged several contentions. Heard the arguments and perused the papers with care.

4. A perusal of the prayer sought in the writ petition indicates that the petitioners have called into question the orders passed under Section 29C of the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act, 1959. A statutory remedy of appeal against the impugned orders is available under Section 106(1)(d-2) of the said Act. In view of the availability of an alternative statutory remedy, this Court finds no ground to exercise its discretionary jurisdiction under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India.

Accordingly, the writ petition stands rejected. The petitioners may approach the appropriate forum, if so advised and if the law permits. In view of rejection of the writ petition, there is no need to consider I.A.No.1/2026. Accordingly, it is dismissed.

On disposal of the Writ Petition, any interim order granted earlier stands discharged.
