THIS PETITION, COMING ON FOR REPORTING SETTLEMENT, THIS DAY, ORDER WAS MADE THEREIN AS UNDER:

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH RAI K

ORAL ORDER

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner and respondent No.2 that the parties have amicably settled their dispute outside the Court. In view of the said settlement, they have filed an application under Section 359 r/w Section 528 of the BNSS, 2023, seeking permission to compound the offences.

The parties have also filed a joint affidavit placing the terms of settlement on record.

2. No doubt the offence alleged against the petitioner are non-compoundable in nature. However, considering the nature of the allegations in the complaint, the same are purely private in nature. As such, placing reliance on the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh v. State of Punjab, reported in (2012) 10 SCC 303, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of the proceedings would not serve any useful purpose. Accordingly, the parties are permitted to compound the offence and the proceedings against the petitioner is liable to be quashed.

3. Consequently, the proceedings against the petitioner-accused in Crime No.298/2024 registered by Mysuru South Police Station arising out of PCR No.1438/2024, for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420, 465, 504 and 506 of IPC pending on the file of the XI, Addl.Civil Judge and JMFC, Mysure, are hereby quashed.

Accordingly, petition is disposed of in terms of the joint memo.

In terms of the compromise entered into between the parties, the amount of Rs.2,00,000/- deposited by the petitioner before the XI Additional Civil Judge and JMFC, Mysuru, as a condition for his release on bail, shall be released in favour of respondent No.2, on due identification.
