UMA SHANKAR Versus KRISHAN LAL SHARMA

CR.R - 310 of 2026

03.11.2026 Present: Mr. Tek Chand, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Inderjeet Singh Narwal, Advocate, for the respondent.

CRMP-4866 of 2026

By way of instant application, prayer has been made on behalf of the applicant/petitioner for extension of time to comply with order dated 04.06.2026, whereby substantive sentence imposed by the Court below was ordered to be suspended, subject to the applicant/petitioner depositing 50% of the compensation amount within a period of four weeks.

Since for reasons beyond the control of the applicant/petitioner, aforesaid amount could not be deposited within the time stipulated, instant application has been filed seeking extension of time.

During the proceedings of the case, learned counsel representing the applicant/petitioner, on instructions of the applicant/petitioner, who is present in Court, apprised this Court that applicant/petitioner is ready and willing to pay entire amount. He states that sum of Rs. 32,000/- has already been paid to the non-applicant/respondent and further sum of Rs. 32,000/- has been paid in Court to learned counsel representing the respondent for further handing over the same to the non-applicant/respondent.

Learned counsel representing the non-applicant/ respondent, while fairly admitting factum with regard to receipt of Rs. 64,000/- in terms of the judgment of conviction and order of sentence passed by the Court below, states that respondent shall have no objection in case offence is compounded in terms of Section 147 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

In view of the reasons stated hereinabove, further time, as prayed for, is granted to the applicant/petitioner to comply with order dated 04.06.2026, which now stands complied with.

In view of the above, the present application is disposed of, reserving liberty to the applicant/petitioner to file appropriate proceedings before the appropriate Court of law for compounding of the offence alleged to have been committed by him under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

Since entire amount of compensation has been paid by the applicant/petitioner, coupled with the fact that parties are ready and willing to settle the dispute, as detailed hereinabove, this Court deems it fit to direct the Registry of this Court to post the case at hand before the appropriate Bench in the week commencing from 16.11.2026, by which time applicant/petitioner may file appropriate application for getting the offence alleged to have been committed by him compounded in terms of Section 147 of the NI Act.
