2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent police conducted a raid, the petitioner along with the other accused were found selling Kerala Lottery tickets banned by the Government of Tamil Nadu near Ambattur Market. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case, he was not in the scene of occurrence; that the petitioner has been unnecessarily roped in this case and that the petitioner has not involved in any offence as alleged and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that as per the complaint, the petitioner along with the other accused involved in illegal selling of banned lottery tickets and that the investigation of this case is pending.

5. Considering the submissions made, facts and circumstances of
