2. The case of the prosecution is that, due to previous enmity between two gangs, the petitioners along with other accused attacked the de facto complainant using knife. Due to which, the de facto complainant sustained grievous injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that they are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner/A1 in Crl OP No.230/2025 has three previous cases pending against him. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) and perused the materials available on record and also nature of previous cases reported.

6. Considering the submissions made on both sides and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
