3. Upon hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner and perusing the material records of the case, it can be seen that the petitioner had made an application to the second respondent under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, complaining that even though she has been allotted a share in the partition suit, the private respondents, being her daughter-in-law/third respondent through her second son Senthil Kumar (since deceased) and others, are attempting to dispossess her, have unleashed violence on her and are threatening her life. Being a senior citizen, she is unable to live in her own property with dignity and hence seeks appropriate orders under the Act.

4. Considering the grievance expressed in the representation, the writ petition stands disposed of with the following direction:
