2.It is the case of the respondent that the petitioner's vehicle was used by the accused for commission of the offence under the NDPS Act. The petitioner is not an accused in the case. The petitioner sought for return of the vehicle, which was returned to him inter alia on the following condition;

"4.The petitioner shall produce the above said vehicle before this court on the first working day of every month without fail until further orders"

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that since the petitioner is a permanent resident of Kerala, he is unable to produce the vehicle before the trial Court every month.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner has been complying with the above condition so far.

5.Considering the fact that the petitioner is a resident of Kerala, the above condition is modified, by directing the petitioner to produce the vehicle before the trial Court, once in two months.
