2. The allegation against the petitioners is that on 03.12.2025, when crackers had been burst by the first petitioner, out of which, one cracker had been burst near the defacto complainant mother's feet, following which, wordy altercation happened, culminated in free fight and the defacto complainant and his mother sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint has been registered against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed that anticipatory bail be granted to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital, investigation is pending in this case and there is no previous cases as against the petitioners. However, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, injured discharged from the hospital, investigation is pending and no previous cases reported as against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

subject to certain conditions.
