2. According to the applicant, they filed the main petition to appoint a guardian and to grant permission to sell the share of the minor child.

3. Already this Court passed an order by allowing the application in the main petition. The share of the minor child have been wrongly mentioned as Rs.16,19,200/- instead of Rs.7,70,000/-. Therefore, those typographical errors have to be corrected. In this case, there is no respondent.

4. This Court already perused the records. It is observed that the above said corrections occurred due to typographical error. Therefore, the said typographical error has to be corrected.

5. Registry is directed to carry necessary amendment and issue fresh order copy.

6. Accordingly, these Applications are disposed of.
