2. The allegation against the petitioner is that he was a friend of the deceased and that both of them earlier worked together as one group and were involved in robbery offences. Subsequently, the petitioner separated himself and joined another group, which led to a quarrel between them. Due to the said quarrel, it is alleged that on the date of the alleged occurrence, the petitioner joined hands with other five accused, attacked the deceased with stones and also by using beer bottle indiscriminately, causing severe injuries. Hence, a case was registered and the petitioner was arrested.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and that he did not attack the deceased with any wooden log and there is no specific overt act attributed to the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 06.11.2025. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner is having one previous case under 307 IPC and that the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, the nature of the allegations and the fact that a major part of the investigation was completed, and also considering the period of his incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Tiruvallur District and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions
