anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioners herein due to tenancy dispute with the complainant joined hands with the other accused and attacked the complainant who is the owner of the premises. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case; regarding the very same occurrence, a counter complaint has also been registered by the first petitioner herein against the complainant and the same is also registered in Crime No.373 of 2025 and in that case, the complainant's father is also injured and case and that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and to co-operate for the investigation, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioners reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the investigation of this case is pending and that the injured is discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against the petitioner.

Crl.O.P.No.1141 of 2020

5. Considering the submissions made, facts and circumstances of this case, nature of allegation, the fact that there is only tenancy dispute and no previous case as against the petitioner and custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not necessary for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Attur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioners fail to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

[b] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to
