2. The prosecution case alleged that the petitioners and de facto complainant are relatives and there was a quarrel between the parties. The petitioner attacked the de facto complainant with wooden log and caused injuries. Hence, the case was registered against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and also submitted that A1 in this case has been arrested and enlarged on bail and prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the case of the prosecution and submitted that there is a previous pending against the petitioner and further submitted that the investigation is pending in this case, hence, she opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. I have gone through the FIR and other connected materials and it reveals that A1 in this case has been arrested and granted bail and considering the nature of offences and the allegation levelled against the petitioners, I am of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not necessary to investigate with the case of this nature. Hence, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. subject to certain conditions.
